Additional costs

In addition to Programme Fees payable to the University, if you wish to purchase hard copy textbooks you will need to budget for these. The study materials for all modules except Texts in Hebrew are available online however, either as scanned chapters or in the Online Library.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

Divinity Fee Schedule

When to pay

The application fee is payable when you make your application. The closing date for applications is 1 October. If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register.

You must pay the fee for at least one module to be registered with us. The closing date for registrations is 30 October.

The module fee will be inclusive of module registration and your first attempt at the assessment for that module in the year which you register.

A non-refundable fee may be payable if you wish to make an application for recognition of prior learning for accreditation on, or transfer to, the degree programme. You may make this application throughout the year.

A non-refundable late registration fee of £105 will be charged if payment is not received by the deadlines specified for initial or continuing registration.

Indicative total fee

This has been calculated assuming the programme is completed in minimum time (i.e. 3 years) with no examination resits.

How to pay

Please see the University of London website – How to pay your fees.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual review and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice if needed, upon request.
