Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

MA Education Fee Schedule

All Programme Fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

What to pay

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The module or dissertation fee is payable for each module or dissertation to be studied.
- A non-refundable recognition of prior learning application fee is payable by applicants who wish to have prior learning considered with a view to receiving credit for a particular module.
- An assessment resubmission fee is payable when entering to resubmit a previously failed module.
- A second Virtual Learning Environment fee is payable if you are participating for the second time (the fee varies depending on whether participation is for a module, for a re-written dissertation or for a new dissertation).
- An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.

When to pay

The Programme Fees above refer to the 2020-2021 session only and are effective from 1 March 2019.

The closing date for continuing registration and module fees is 31 August (or as soon as the results of any examinations taken in that year have been published).

How to pay

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Fee increases

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.
