See details below for costs you may incur with parties which are external to the University of London, for example, examination centre charges and locally imposed taxes. You should budget for these accordingly.

When to pay

The application fee is payable when you make your application. The closing date for applications is 1 October. If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered as a University of London student. The closing dates for initial registrations are 30 November for the BSc degree and the Graduate Diploma and 31 October for the CertHE in Social Sciences.

The examination fee is payable when you choose to enter an examination. Examination entries are accepted from mid-December to the closing date of 1 February. Examinations take place in May or June each year. The examination fee and dates also apply if you are re-entering the examination.

The continuing registration fee is payable in the second and subsequent years of registration at the time when you complete the continuing registration process. The closing date for continuing registration is 1 November.

An additional fee is payable for each Law course that is chosen. The closing date for registrations is 30 November.

A non-refundable fee may be payable if you wish to make an application for (discretionary) recognition of prior learning. Such applications may be made throughout the year. There is no fee payable for applying for automatic recognition of prior learning.

*A late registration fee of £100 will be charged if payment is not received by the deadlines specified for initial or continuing registration.

You are permitted one free transfer between EMFSS programmes. A fee of £192 will be charged for each subsequent transfer between EMFSS programmes. This fee does not apply to transfers between levels within a programme i.e. Certificate of Higher Education to BSc, etc.

How to pay

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of £300 per year if you are taking four courses in one year), tuition costs (if studying at a teaching centre), and the LSE summer school (optional).

You should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 7% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be dispatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Please use the enquiries form for any questions; or ask a question via the Portal: <https://my.london.ac.uk>.
