* 'Programme Fees' mean fees payable to the University which include, where applicable, registration fees, continuing registration fees, module/course fees, dissertation fees and examination entry fees as indicated below.

2018-2019

The Programme Fees below refer to the 2018-2019 session only and are effective from June 2018. Fees are subject to annual revision.

Either Whole fee
MA	£8,100
PGDip	£6,480
PGCert	£3,240
Or Modular fees
Core or Elective Module Fee (per module)	£1,080
Dissertation Module Fee	£1,620
Other fees (where applicable)
Examination Resit Fee / Dissertation Thesis Resubmission Fee / Dissertation-Second Deferral Fee	£230

What to pay

Fees can be paid in one of the following ways:

- Either a single payment, when you initially register for the programme covering all module fees for the MA degree, PGDip or PGCert;
- Or the fee for modules to be studied in that term. To be registered, you must pay the fee for at least one module. In subsequent terms, only the fees for any new modules are payable.

Where applicable and subject to the regulations, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The Core or Elective Module Fee is payable once per module (except in the case of a second deferral or a restarted module) and includes, as applicable and subject to the regulations, the first attempt at the examination and two attempts at coursework and e-tivities.
- The Dissertation Module Fee includes the first and second submission of the dissertation proposal and the first submission of the dissertation thesis.

Additionally, where applicable and subject to the regulations, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- A dissertation thesis resubmission fee to resubmit a previously failed dissertation thesis.

- A dissertation-second thesis deferral fee is payable when you submit a thesis on a second occasion, having already deferred submission of the dissertation thesis on a first occasion and having obtained permission to defer submission on a second occasion.
- A new module fee if you restart a module having failed it, having failed to complete it or having deferred it on a second occasion.

When to pay

If you want to make a single payment for the whole award (MA degree, PGDip or PGCert) the following deadline applies:

- To start the MA degree, PGDip or PGCert in September, you must register and pay for it by 14 September.

If you want to pay for modules as you progress through your studies, the following deadlines apply:

- To start a module in September, you must register and pay for it by 14 September.
- To start a module in February, you must register and pay for it by 19 January.

The examination resit fee is payable by:

- 20 November for the exam session that takes place from in January of the following year
- 9 March for the exam session that takes place in May of the same year.

How to pay

Please see: Payment methods for Postgraduate fees

Examination centre fees

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £65 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

On 1 July 2017 a Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) was introduced in India which applies to online services. From 1 August 2019, the University will be required to add GST at the statutory rate of 18% to its programme fees for new and continuing students resident in India.

Please note

The 2018-19 Programme Fees are valid from June 2018. Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum. If the fees are revised the new fees will take effect from June 2019.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request.

Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
