What to pay

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The module fee is payable once per module and includes the first entry for the examination.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- An administrative charge for refunding a module fee.
- An application fee is payable if you wish to have discretionary accreditation of prior learning (APL) considered for the degree programme. This fee is non-refundable even if APL is not awarded. No application fee is payable for consideration of automatic APL. Qualifications that will be considered automatically are listed in the table of automatic APL in the programme regulations. Applications for APL may be made throughout the year.

- An examination resit fee is payable when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- An extension of registration fee is payable if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.
- A fee is charged for attending each plenary session which are compulsory for students of MBA/MSc International Management. Note that there are two plenary sessions (Plenary 1 Introduction and Plenary 2 Consultancy Group Work) and these must be attended in different years. The fee does not include the cost of travelling, accommodation and all subsistence. Separate arrangements are in place for students at SPACE in Hong Kong.
- A dissertation resit fee will be payable if you fail the dissertation (mark of 00.00-44.99%) and make a supervised second attempt.
- If you are permitted to transfer to the MBA International Management from the PGCert, PGDip or MSc in International Management, you will be required to pay the remaining balance of the registration fee and the relevant module fees for the completion of the degree.
- If you are permitted to proceed from an Individual module taken on a stand-alone basis to the MBA, MSc, PGDip or PGCert, you will be required to pay the relevant registration fee and the fee for the remaining modules.

When to pay

- The Programme Fees given above refer to the 2018 session only and are effective from 1 March 2018.
- Fees may be paid at any time of the year. However, the deadlines for registering for modules are as follows: You must register for any modules you wish to study in the coming year before 15 October to take the examination in the following May, and by 1 March to take the examination in October. These deadlines will be strictly applied. No module materials will be despatched until the relevant fees have been received.
- The examination resit fee, payable when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module, is payable before 1 February for the May examination and 1 August for the October examination.

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £65 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

On 1 July 2017 a Goods and Services Tax \(GST\) was introduced in India which applies to online services. From 1 August 2019, the University will be required to add GST at the statutory rate of 18% to its programme fees for new and continuing students resident in India.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
