What to pay

Programme Fees may be paid in one of two ways:

- either a single payment, covering the registration fee and all module fees for the LLM, PGDip, PGCert or stand-alone Individual module

Postgraduate Laws 2019 session Fee Schedule

- or the registration fee plus the fees for the modules you select to study in the first year. To complete your registration, you must pay at the same time both the registration fee and the fee for at least one module. In subsequent years, only the fees for any new modules are payable.

Where applicable, you are required to pay the following Programme Fees in full and in accordance with the University's deadlines:

- The registration fee is payable in order to be registered as a University of London student.
- The module fee is payable once per module and includes the first entry to the examination.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- An extension of registration fee if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.
- A non-refundable application fee to have prior learning considered for accreditation on the degree programme. Such applications may be made throughout the year.
- An administrative fee for changing modules.

If you are permitted to transfer to the Postgraduate Diploma in Laws or the LLM from the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws or the Postgraduate Diploma in Laws (as applicable), you will not be required to pay a new registration fee, but will be required to pay the appropriate remaining module fees.

If you are permitted to proceed from a stand-alone Individual module to the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws, Postgraduate Diploma in Laws or the LLM, you will be required to pay the relevant registration fee and the fee for the remaining modules.

When to pay

2019 Programme Fees are valid from 1 January 2019. New students must register by 15 April to take their first exams in October, or by 10 November to take their first exams the following May, but may register and pay fees for modules throughout the year.

You must purchase new modules by 15 February if you wish to sit exams for these modules in May. You must purchase new modules by 25 August if you wish to sit exams for these modules in October.

Other costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination

centres on the website. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £70 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to registration and module/course fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All programme fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students resident in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

Please note

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
